

Vultures

ACROSS

- 6 This type of roost is used from March through October
- 8 Vultures are often seen by the sides of roads eating ____
- 10 The main defense mechanism of vultures
- 15 Black Vultures use this to locate food
- 16 Turkey Vultures can smell carrion from ____ feet up in the air
- 17 Because vulture urine has this in it, their droppings become naturally sanitized
- 19 Turkey Vultures never hunt live prey because these are too weak
- 20 This type of roost is used year-round for many years
- 21 This type of roost is used for temporary foraging

DOWN

- 1 Turkey Vultures use this sense to locate food
- 2 The color of the adult Black Vulture's head
- 3 What we call a group of vultures circling on hot air currents in the sky
- 4 Black Vultures make this sound
- 5 The main food source of Black and Turkey Vultures
- 7 Because Turkey Vultures lack this, they only make hissing and grunting sounds
- 9 A common tree that vultures roost in
- 11 Vultures lay their eggs here
- 12 The color of the adult Turkey Vulture's head
- 13 Turkey Vultures are known to eat this fall harvest vegetable
- 14 What we call a group of vultures roosting together
- 18 Vultures are in the same family as the ____, which is North America's largest bird

Vultures

Solution:

To learn more about vultures or to get clues to the puzzle, visit our website and click on Habitat Herald Archives in the navigation bar. Use the drop-down menus to locate the article that corresponds to this topic:

Habitat Herald, Vol X, Issue 3, Featured Friend: Turkey Vulture